Ultimately, the decision to grant admin leave for paid work is up to OHR. OGC Ethics has, however, opined as follows:

The agency's administrative leave policy defines "volunteer activity" as "[u]npaid service or an activity that an employee has chosen to participate in for personal reasons outside of official, work-related duties and not in any official capacity." Personally, [OGC Ethics is] inclined to construe "unpaid" as meaning "not even offered" as opposed to "declined."

The opinion also states that an offer of compensation undermines the spirit of volunteerism. That said, however, I am not the decisionmaker on this issue.

I didn't pay any attention to it, but it says (in bold font) that poll workers will be paid ☹ I guess they're trying to attract out of work workers? But you're saying I can't take leave even if I turn down the pay?

Can I safely assume that this outside work is unpaid and there will be no offer of compensation? From an ethics perspective, we have been told that employees are eligible for admin leave only if the work is unpaid. If an offer of compensation is given, admin leave is likely not available, even if the employee refuses the compensation.

Hello,

I hope you are all well.

I am submitting [redacted] memo on her behalf to request Admin. Leave for nonpartisan volunteering on election day. Her plans are still in flux but we wanted to submit a request just in case she does want to volunteer.

I am also confirming Ex. 6 Personal Privacy (PP) absence will not create negative impacts to critical mission work.

Please let us know if you have any questions or need more information.

Thank you,

Subject: Excused Absence for Voting

Dear Colleagues,

Election Day is Tuesday, November 3, 2020. According to federal guidelines, employees may be granted an excused absence (i.e., administrative leave) to vote depending on their work schedule and the polling times for their voting jurisdiction. There are additional considerations related to voting on Election Day, early voting, and non-partisan volunteering summarized below.

Voting on Election Day

If the difference between an employee's scheduled arrival and departure times and the polls' opening and closing time is less than three hours, an employee is entitled to administrative leave, up to a maximum of three hours. If the polls open or close at least three hours before or after an employee's work schedule, no excused absence may be granted.

If an employee's voting place is beyond normal commuting distance and voting by absentee ballot is not permitted, the agency may grant excused absence (not to exceed one day) to allow the employee to travel to the voting place to cast a ballot. If more than one day is needed, the employee may request annual leave or leave without pay for the additional period of absence.

Early Voting

In regards to early voting, the agency may grant excused absence on a scheduled workday only when: 1) the employee will be unable to vote on the day of the election because of activities directly related to the agency's mission (such as temporary duty travel) and cannot vote by absentee ballot; or 2) early voting hours are the same as, or exceed, voting hours on the day of the election. In such case, the general Election Day guidance above applies. If the polling place hours are shorter than on Election Day, the employee is not eligible for excused absence.

Non-Partisan Volunteer

An employee who requests time off to train and serve as a non-partisan volunteer election official to assist at polling stations may be granted excused absence to the maximum extent possible while accounting for the responsibilities and duties to carry out the agency's mission. The agency will try to accommodate the excused absence request so long as there are no negative impacts to critical mission work. Decisions about granting excused absence for this purpose are to be made on a case-by-case basis and require the employee's assistant administrator or regional administrator's approval after the local deputy ethics official or the Office of General Counsel's Ethics Office has determined the volunteer activity comports with ethics requirements. Approved administrative leave for participation in volunteer activities should not involve an employee being absent from the workplace for a significant period.

Any employee needing an excused absence to vote or volunteer should first seek approval from their first-line supervisor. If approved, the time must be documented in PeoplePlus using the following time reporting codes:

- VOTIN (Administrative Leave – Voting)
- VOLRT (Administrative Leave – Volunteer Activities)

Please refer to the U.S. Environmental Protection Agency's policies regarding official time off for voting and the use of administrative leave. Some of the agency's collective bargaining agreements contain similar language. Please refer to those agreements or the applicable union point of contact for further information.

If you have questions regarding these guidelines, please contact the Policy and Accountability Branch, Office of Human Resources, at OHR PPTD PAB.

Best,

Donna J. Vizian
